Co-founder & design principle
Terrada-PH3 Australia

He calls himself a designer rather than an architect. This 33-year old die-hard fans of nasi goreng, has won several design awards and finalist for many design competition nationally and internationally.

A believer in balancing commercial and idealism in design, Raul has various works in architecture, interior design, product design as well as graphic design. Using state-of-the-art technology combined with unconventional design method every project; his design is aesthetically pleasing without sacrificing its functionality.

He has been developing projects in Singapore, Australia and Indonesia. His conceptual works have also been used in other regions such as China, Hong Kong, New Zealand and USA.

New Concept of Design and Image Consulting

Forget what you know about any design firm, this one is different.

A pool of multi talented people with one common goal fusion into a consulting firm that will set a new standard and focus on more defining objective, helping our clients to reach their goals. Each project is carefully developed from many angles, there's no such simple and easy one, and every project must have soul and complexity to deal with. Finding solution through design is our main task, and with lots of brains put into the projects, the result will be astonishing and applicable at the same time.

A comprehensive 'one design solution' is our answer for your demanding needs, without being simplistic and taking short cuts, our team of experts will look into fine details within your budget and time.

Be different, but not outrageous. These Yoga Master, Music Composer, Stage Comedian, Karate Kid, Jeweler Designer, Painter and Pianist will look after your project trough Masterplan, Architecture, Interior, Product Design, Multimedia Graphic Design, Brand-Image and Marketing Concept in one complete solution.

If Excellent Result, Controlled Budget-Time, and Fun is what you looking for, Terrada is the answer
